finds our strong stock almost unbroken, except in occasional spots. The tremendous stock we carry has stood the most terrific rapid fire selling ever known in this section without weakening except in a few minor places.

Since the unfortunate disaster that befell one of our well known and highly respected Dry Goods merchants early yesterday morning, we feel that welhave a service to perform even greater than before.

The first object of a store of our kind is not to make money—but to serve the people. If this is properly done, the making of money will come easy.

We will immediately strengthen the weak places in our stock for your wants We want you to must be satisfied freely tell us your wants-your likes and dislikes—we want you to depend on us for everything.
